MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: DoJ Report on H.R. 1023: A bill to extend the time for presenting federal tort claims for persons under legal disability.

1. On 16 September 1985, I conveyed to Tracey Lawler at OMB the views of the Agency on the above described subject matter. We had no objection to the letter. Any government agency could be subject to indefinite liability, if this bill were to become law. It appears that guardians could appropriately take care of the interests of those persons under such disability.
